The obligatory "this took place yesterday". My girlfriend is upstairs and can't find her phone. I am downstairs building a fire and she ask to me look around. Since I was busy I decided to ask Siri to "call my girlfriend". I have her saved in my phone by her name, but I set her relationship to 'girlfriend'. We have a loft so my girlfriend can hear me doing all of this and we both are expecting to hear her phone ring, but Siri takes a moment to respond. Then out of nowhere Siri responds, "which one?". Needless to say my girlfriend wasn't pleased, but I assured her she is the only girl in my phone listed as girlfriend. We live together and spend all of our time either together, at school, or work, so she knows that Siri made a mistake. I am just wondering what Siri heard to respond that way. TL;DR: Asked Siri to call my girlfriend while with my girlfriend, Siri responds "which one?" EDIT 1: People asking why I didn't use her name. She has a unique Indian name, when I ask Siri to call her it usually gets confused because it doesn't understand the name. Also, I did try it again and it called her normally. And finally, I looked at the phone afterwards to see the options and it was blank on the Siri screen. I agree that maybe it is a pre-programmed response that Apple added to be funny. Not funny when your girlfriend hears it. Select version: iOS 15 iOS 14 iOS 13 iOS 12 Modifying this control will update this page automatically.
